

California Blacksmith Association

Join CBA at www.calsmith.org

CBA is a a nonprofit corporation dedicated to educating smiths and preserving the art and craft of blacksmithing.

California Blacksmith Association

Started in 1977, by a group of 17 California blacksmiths, CBA has developed into a thriving group of over 650 blacksmiths and enthusiasts. We are a diverse group of men and women whose common interest is a passion for metal. Our non-profit, volunteer organization is dedicated to keeping the tradition, art and craft of blacksmithing alive.

Member Benefits

Upon becoming a member of CBA you receive:

- A subscription to "California Blacksmith" our bi-monthly publication
- Online access to "California Blacksmith" magazine archives
- Access to CBA conferences and events as well as our educational programs and workshops
- Access to our brick and mortar library, which houses hundreds of books and DVDs
- Submit photos to your own gallery page on the website Becoming a Member

CBA welcomes anyone interested in blacksmithing, from beginners to professionals. All memberships expire on March 31st, as the Membership year begins April 1st. You may join for the full year beginning January 1st at the standard annual rates. On July 1st, memberships are offered for a half-year at a $10.00 discount. Be sure to join us so you can enjoy the people, events and resources that make the CBA a valuable organization.

CBA offers three levels of membership, please go to www.calsmith.org for current dues and a membership application:

- Individual – An individual membership is best for someone who is planning on attending conferences and events alone.
- Family – A family membership includes one or two adults and any number of school-age children. Family memberships include only one subscription to The California Blacksmith.
- Business – A business membership allows employees to attend CBA events and participate in CBA classes. The business receives only one copy of the magazine and only one vote in Association elections.

Note: Application for membership in the CBA indicates that you have read and agree to the CBA safety and sexual harassment policies. Mail-in membership forms and payment should be sent to the CBA Secretary at:

CBA Secretary

4747 Vine Hill Rd.

Sebastopol, CA 95472

